

The Open Day

Children from kindergarten who were graduating, enthusiastically wore graduation gowns

The celebrations were joyful and full of spirit as the children performed for parents and prominent members of society

Not all children were graduating, the younger ones were still continuing their studies in the kindergarten

About 225 parents were present at the Open Day celebrations representing more than 70% of parents.

Representatives from the Education Department [head of the section for non formal education, District of Dairi], head of the villages of Parbuluan and Berampu were present to give their encouragement to the Foundation for the program of the Education Centers
